Dear Mr. Soobzokov:

Your request that we provide you with a certified copy of the Personal Data Form which you enclosed with your letter of 27 March 1980 has been considered by this Agency's Office of General Counsel. It has been determined that the document in question cannot be certified and released by this Agency because it was originated by the Department of State. We have, therefore, forwarded it to the Department and have requested that they respond directly to you.

We regret the overly long delay in responding, but the legal ramifications of your request required careful review and consideration. We apologize for any inconvenience that may have resulted, and we sincerely appreciate your patience during the time we have been deliberating on your request.

Sincerely,

John E. Bacon
Information and Privacy Coordinator
